SECOLI FORTUNA MEDIA HUTCH 971-12-51

If our everyday lives tell us anything about ourselves, it is that we find nothing more comforting than the pleasures of home. Curling up after a long day to enjoy some good music, get lost in a novel or just catch a favorite show isn't just a way to pass the time. It's the necessary downtime that reminds us of our connections, and prepares us for what lies ahead. Our Secoli Fortuna Media Hutch stands as a visual celebration of that lifestyle. With symmetrical display cubbies for books and artifacts, plus concealed upper storage for CDs, DVDs and smaller treasures, this stately unit provides a sense of import to the moments that help frame our day. The traditional European library feel is enhanced by the strong panel accents, including two raised bar columns on either side. The center area is wide enough to accommodate a 60-inch flat panel TV, with ample visual space all around for a bit of style. Designed to rest on our Secoli Fortuna Media Console, the Hutch makes a stunning impression designed to last for generations to come.
